Experiences

2016 Affordable Art Fair Bristol,

Artist in Residence:

Documenting life in Bristol. By working on the streets, the public were invited to pedal a bicycle which powered my sewing machine, allowing me to stitch my observations of the city on a 3.5meter canvas.

2015 Kenya Kuona Trust,

Artist in Residence:

Travelled in Kenya with my sewing machine working in the slums of Nairobi and the rural village areas documenting life onto canvas. The work was exhibited in a solo show in Nairobi.

2015 India Project:

Travelled extensively around India, documenting different cultures in stitch. Including cycling across south India with my sewing machine and climbing the Himalaya's to stitch.

Solo-show in Delhi and The Nehru Center, London.

Released a self-published book encompassing her artistic journey through India with her sewing machine.

2015 Affordable Art Fair Battersea,

Artist in Residence:

Stitching the on-goings of the fair and the guests portraits with my sewing machine.
